1. CALL MEETING TO ORDER

Councilor Hawkins called the meeting to order at 5:31 p.m. She welcomed all in attendance and thanked them for coming to participate in the Parks Open House. She explained that the Open House has been noticed as a Special Meeting because of the number of councilors participating. She explained that they would proceed with the Open House format and that the topic for discussion tonight is Parks and if anyone wanted to talk about something other than parks that would be for another night.

2. PARKS AND COMMUNITY RESOURCES OPEN HOUSE

Parks and Community Resources Open House for community engagement with City Council and City staff to discuss and consider ideas, suggestions, and concerns regarding city parks, community spaces and public facilities. (No action will be taken on this item)

Parks and Community Resources Open House was held for community engagement with city councilors and staff to discuss and consider ideas, suggestions, and concerns regarding city parks, community spaces and public facilities. A parks timeline was displayed. A TV display played a slideshow of the Stillwater Parks survey results. There was also a display of Myers Park for discussion of new additions and relocation of playground equipment. Staff and City Councilors were available to listen to ideas and answer questions related to city parks, community spaces and public facilities.
